ADMINISTRATION

Saint Mary's High School

50 RICHLAND STREET
WORCESTER, MASSACHUSETTS 01610

Dear Class of '86,

As I began this graduation letter, there was a recurring theme that seems to express my feelings for you as you leave St. Mary's,

I said a prayer for you today
And know God must have heard
I felt the answer in my heart
Although He spoke not a word.
I didn't ask for wealth or fame
(I knew you wouldn't mind)
I asked for priceless treasures rare
Of a more lasting kind.
I prayed that He'd be near to you
At the start of each new day,
To grant you health and
Blessings fair,
And Friends to share your way
I asked for happiness for you
In all things great and small
But that you'd know His loving care
I prayed for that most of all.

With much love, concern and pride for the Class of '86,

Sister Rose Thelma

CARNATION DAY

Valentine's Day is a day we set aside to express a token of love or appreciation to those most dear to us. Usually we give the person a special greeting card and candy or flowers.

At St. Mary's the Junior Class, as part of a fund-raising effort for the Prom, makes use of the occasion to sell carnations to those who wish to give a gift to that special someone. Red carnations are sent as a message of love and white ones send a note of friendship.

The morning is filled with anticipation, excitement and happiness as members of the Junior Class carry the ribboned flowers to their fortunate recipients in the classrooms.

Clockwise from Above: Martha, Lisa and Debbie cut ribbons. Chris and Sherri check names on delivery cards. Elaine, Patty, Kerry and Joanne sort the flowers. Later, Joanne, Elaine, Debbie and Dave make deliveries. Phil double checks that names and "love" notes are correct.

ANNIE

This year's musical was an old favorite: ANNIE. It drew sellout crowds to each of the four performances. Prior to the last performance some members of the BOOSTER Club, dedicated chefs that they are, cooked a scrumptious chicken dinner.

Miss Sue Miville, director of the Peter Pan Players, gave her time and talent to directing our Drama Club members in this production. Assisting her were: Mrs. Carol Fredette, Moderator of the Drama Club; Mrs. Paula Zawalich, dance instructor; and Rev. John Szantyr and crew, set designers and builders.

PROM, '85

A NIGHT IN HEAVEN

The Junior-Senior Prom took place at the Sheraton Yankee Drummer Inn in Auburn on a rainy Friday, May 3, 1985, from 7-12 P.M.

Maroon and pink on the dining tables added warmth and a glow to the room so that the cool and rather misty weather was quickly forgotten. Of course, the friendship and togetherness felt by each one, Senior and Junior alike, could never be dampened by weather. This was "A Night In Heaven."

The band "Fame," returning for the third time, added to the evening's enjoyment.

Thank you Sister Francis Marie, Miss Tricia Nosek, Mrs. Carol Fedyk and members of the Junior Class for a memorable evening!

FRESHMEN DAY

The 1985-86 Freshmen Day program turned out to be a huge success. It began with the Seniors greeting the Freshmen at the entrance to the auditorium/gymnasium.

Amongst those Seniors who welcomed the Freshmen were Class President, Pam Reilly; Class Secretary, Sherri Nault; and Class Treasurer, Ed Walsh.

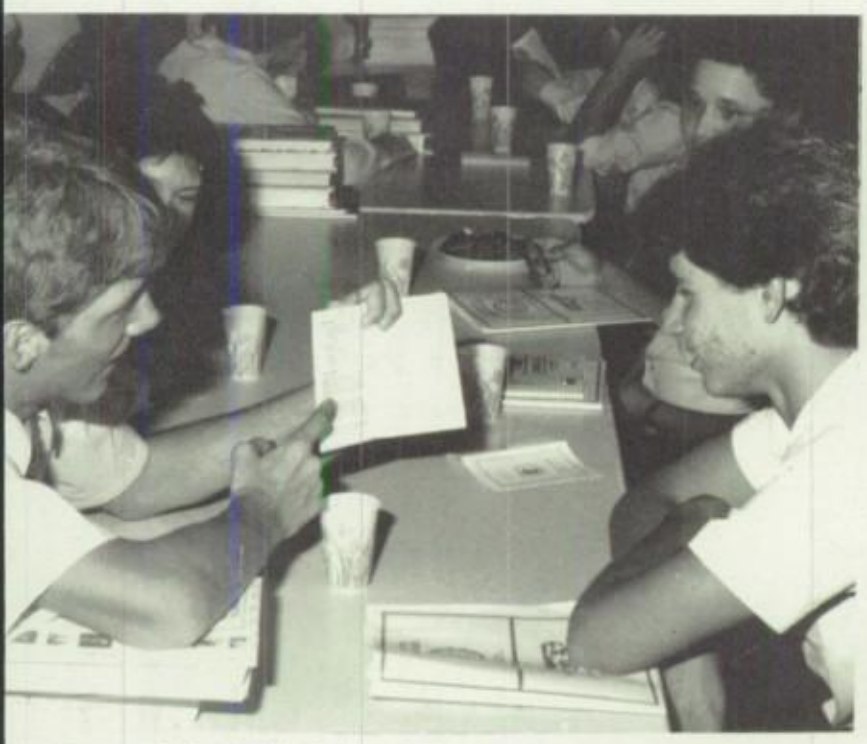
The official welcome over, everyone proceeded to the auditorium to enjoy some refreshments. During this time, too, the Seniors taught the Freshmen to sing the school song. The day ended with the Seniors and Freshmen singing the "Alma Mater" together in harmony.

Welcome,

Freshmen!

R. Wilson, A. Giustino, J. Kostrzeba practice singing.

John Yanczewski gives a handshake to his new Freshman friend, Marc Wychorski.



Roman Sobocinski & Joanne Brady teach John Szklarz.

DON'T QUIT

When things go wrong, as they sometimes will,
When the road you're trudging seems all uphill,
When the funds are low and the debts are high, And you want to smile, but you have to sigh, When care is pressing you down a bit—Rest if you must, but DON'T YOU QUIT.

GOD BLESS YOU
TODAY, TOMORROW AND ALWAYS

It seems to me, there is no way
In which I could address you,

With more sincerity of heart
Than just to say God Bless You.

My words could wish that all your cares
Would be a little lighter

And I could send you greeting cards
To make your hours brighter.

My heart could wish good luck to you
And happiness in planning

And I could promise you the depth
Of human understanding.

But I am sure no other thought
Or message would impress you

As lovingly or lastingly
As asking God to Bless You.

And so I say God Bless You,
In every good endeavor

And may His guiding grace be yours
Forever and forever.
